THURSDAY - FRIDAY - SATURDAY - SUNDAY
MAY 13 - 14 - 15 - 16

Limit Rights Reserved

HAPPY WINNER—"Almost too good to be true" was the way Frank Stancati, 15014 Fonthill Avenue, Hawthorne, described his reactions to winning grand prize given by new owners of Market Town super market at Compton and Crenshaw, during their Grand Opening event recently. Prize was a trip for two persons to Las Vegas via Western Airlines, a three-day stay at El Rancho Vegas hotel with all expenses paid, and $50 in cash. Stancati will take his wife, who is a regular customer of Market Town. The McCullough Motors employee, pictured at left, has lived in the area for a little over a year. Presenting plane ticket is Merv Adelson, manager and co-owner of Market Town. —Gardena Valley News photo

Coach Clifford Graybehl Named To Head YMCA Summer Day Camps

Cliff Graybehl of the Torrance High School coaching staff will be the director of the Torrance YMCA Day Camp starting Monday, June 28. The Day Camp program will include swimming lessons for beginners and advance instruction to the more advanced group at the San Pedro YMCA pool. An overnight camping session starting at nine in the morning will be included in each period ing and concluding at five in the afternoon. There will be three periods—June 28 to July 16; July 19 to Aug. 6; Aug 9 to Aug. 20. This program of the Torrance YMCA is in addition to the mountain camping done each summer at Round Meadow and the High Sierras.
